

A Comparison of Lancaster's Transfer Income as a Percentage of Personal Income

Source: Bureau of Economic Analysis

Transfer income as a percentage of personal income has increased in Lancaster from 12.5% in 2001 to 14.5% in 2006 and has remained above the national values during these years. However, the percentages are significantly higher in Pennsylvania as a whole.