Franklin & Marshall College invites applications for a visiting position in the Department of Economics beginning Fall 2016. The rank will be Visiting Assistant Professor or Visiting Instructor, depending on qualifications. Applicants should possess or be close to completing a doctorate in Economics. Teaching experience is required. Teaching load is 3/2, including but not limited to principles of economics. Candidates should send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, graduate transcript, three letters of recommendation, teaching statement, and teaching evaluation forms. Interested candidates should apply at Interfolio http://apply.interfolio.com/34372. Applications must be received no later than April 1, 2016; review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Pursuant to cultivating an inclusive college community, the search committee will holistically assess the qualifications of each applicant. We will consider an individual’s record working with students and colleagues with diverse perspectives, experiences, and backgrounds. We will also consider experience overcoming or helping others overcome barriers to academic success.

Franklin & Marshall College is committed to having an inclusive campus community where all members are treated with dignity and respect. As an Equal Opportunity Employer, the College does not discriminate in its hiring or employment practices on the basis of gender, sex, race, ethnicity, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, family or marital status, sexual orientation, or any protected characteristic.